

Keynote

Time	Session
11:00 - 11:30	Keynote. Keynote address given by a UK Government Minister or senior official.

The Fusion Forum

Time	Session
10:00 - 10:30	National Preparedness Commission. Lord Toby Harris - Chair, National Preparedness Commission.
10:30 - 11:00	Emergency Planning College - How the UK Cabinet Office Emergency Planning College is working to build resilience across the UK and overseas. John Campbell LLB, MBA, QPM, Senior Associate EPC
11:30 - 12:30	The College of Policing: Boosting Professionalism Hear from CEO of the College of Policing regarding further steps to boost professionalism and consistency in the service. This will include the new Neighbourhood Policing Programme, consistency in areas such as vetting, public protection, and high-risk policing. MAGIC: Multi Agency Gold Incident Command Learn from the College of Policing's MAGIC trainer, Tony Brown, who'll provide an insightful taster session from MAGIC, which provides a legislative and practical framework for strategic level command in emergencies and major incidents, where a multiagency response is required. Technology, Data and Wellbeing The National Police Wellbeing Service, Oscar Kilo (OK) Service Director Andy Rhodes, gives an overview of how we can harness technology data to deliver high return on investment employee wellbeing.
12:30 - 13:00	Tom Pursglove MP, Minister for Legal Migration and the Border
13:00 - 13:30	National Fire Chiefs Council – International. Neil Odin, Chief Fire Officer, Hampshire Fire & Rescue Service & NFCC International Lead.
13:30 - 14:00	Transforming the Goods Border' Kara Claxton, Director for Detection and Goods Transformation, Border Force.
14:00 - 14:30	UK Fire & Rescue Service National Resilience, Uplift & Industry Opportunities A brief introduction to the Fire & Rescue Service National Resilience capabilities. Plus, a summary of the recent process to uplift the Detection, Identification & Monitoring Capability and the upcoming opportunities for the sector industry partners with the uplift of the remaining National Resilience capabilities. Chris Noakes, Capability Advisor for Detection, Identification & Monitoring CBRN(e) Team, NFCC National Resilience
14:30 - 15:00	Closing Panel Session - Reflections/Future

The Innovation Zone

Time	Session
10:00 - 10:30	The Rapid Rise of Generative AI: Assessing Risks to Safety and Security. Ardi Janjeva, The Alan Turing Institute.

10:30 - 11:00	Innovation to support the security of current and future nuclear technologies and opportunities for collaboration. Jeremy Edwards, Head of Nuclear Security Strategy and Mat Budsworth, Head of Safeguards and Nonproliferation Strategy, National Nuclear Laboratory.
11:30 - 12:15 Panel Session	The Rise of Deepfakes. As the development of Deepfake technology accelerates and becomes more sophisticated, the potential implications on criminal areas like Economic Crime, Fraud, Cyber, CSEA and Counter Terrorism, becomes ever more of a threat. How can we mitigate the rising threat of this technology and identify where there is opportunity to apply it to generate positive impact. Representative from the Accelerated Capability Environment (ACE)
12:30 - 13:00	Towards a national Notice of Intended Prosecution: results from a large-scale evaluation with Norfolk & Suffolk, West Mercia, West Midlands and Staffordshire Police. Tom McMinigal, Senior User Researcher, Home Office's Policy and Innovation Lab (CoLab).